3. Digging of the trench should be done as per the markings given by the BSNL. The depth of the trench should be 110 cms and the trench should be covered by soft soil bedding to the height of 15 cms. After laying the cable it should be covered with soft earth to a height of 8 Cms. over which shah bad stone or RCC Troughs should be laid. The trench should be reinstated to a crown of 15 Cms. with tapering towards its sides. Where it is not possible to trench as much depth as indicated for some valid reasons as approved by the P.G.M. 70 Cms to 79 Cms	65% of approved rates
60 Cms to 69 Cms	50% of approved rates

Depth below 60 cms will not be allowed/accepted.

For digging extra depth on specific instructions and reinstatement, additional charges will be calculated proportionately. If both the edges are having different levels, the least will be taken as correct level.

4. The damages will be borne by the contractor while digging the trenches, if any damages are caused to the municipality pipes or property belonging to private parties, or to the existing BSNL cables. The damages should be intimated immediately to the P.G.M. Hyderabad. The BSNL does not own any responsibility for such damages.

- 1.2 The alignment of the trench will be decided by the responsible Department official not below the rank of a junior Telecom Officer, while marking the alignment, only the centre line will be marked and given and the contractor shall set out all other work to ensure that the excavated trench is straight as possible. The contractor shall provide efficient staff for the purpose of the marking and the contractor shall solely be responsible for the accuracy of such setting out. No deviation from the alignment is operated except with the consent of site in charge officer.

1.3 The contractor shall clear, prepare and grade the right way to facilitate the marking of the alignment of the trench, the contractor shall remove all bushes, undergrowth stumps, rocks and other obstacles to facilitate marking the centre line. It is to be ensured that minimum amount of bushes and shrubs shall be removed to clear the way and the contractor shall give all consideration to the preservation of trees within the right way

1.4 The contractor at his own cost should provide necessary barricades, night lamps, warning boards and post required watchman of prevent any accident to pedestrians or vehicles etc, while blasting rocks he shall ensure adequate safety by cautioning the vehicular and other traffic. He shall employ sufficient manpower for this with caution boards, flags etc.

2. TRENCHING:

2.1 The contractor shall dig the trench to the depth specified. 'Trenching shall as far as possible be kept ahead of the laying of pipes. Contractor shall exercise due care that the soil from the trenching intended to be used for back filling is not mixed with loose debris. Trenching shall be carried out in all sorts of soil. While trenching, the contractor should not damage any underground structure or pipeline/cables, slabs, culvert etc. In case of any damage to any underground structure or pipe lines or cables or culverts/slabs then the contractor should replace it at his own cost expenses, as directed by the owner of those damaged pipes / cables, culverts, slabs, etc.

3. DEWATERING / WETTING:

3.1. The contractor shall be responsible for all necessary arrangements to remove or pump out water in the trench. The contractor should survey the soil, condition encountered in the section for which he is tendering and make his own assessment about dewatering arrangements that may be necessary. No extra payment shall be admissible for this and the tendered rate may take care of this aspect, in the same way, wherever the soil is hard due to dry weather conditions, if watering is to be done for wetting the soil to make it loose, the same shall be done at his cost.

4. METHOD OF EXCAVATION:

4.1. In city limits as well as in built up area, the contractor shall resort to use manual labour only to ensure that damage is not caused to pipes and structures or various other utility services like Telephone, power, sewerage or water supply etc, any mechanical excavation may cause damage to such installations.

4.2. However, along the Highway from cities and towns where it is certain after due care and verification that no other cable or pipe line may lie buried in the path of excavation, there shall be no objection to the contractor resorting to mechanical means of excavation subject to the approval of highway authorities / forest authorities and Engineer-in-charge

4.3. Normal width of the trench is 45 cms. at the top and 30 cms at the bottom, for making easy trenching through manual cutting and to avoid easy collapsing of side wall.

4.4. Water present in the trench at the time of laying the cable shall be pumped out by the contractor before laying the cable and ensure that no water gets into the cable during the process.

5. BACK FILLING AND DRESSING THE TRENCH

5.1 Provided that the pipe has been properly laid and jointed in the trench at the specified depth and the nylon rope has been pulled inside, the back filling operations shall follow as closely as practicable. The back filling operation shall be performed in such manner as to provide firm support under the above the pipe and to avoid bend or deformation of the pipe. When the pipe gets with the back filled earth where in any location the back filling is unevenly centered over the trench due to carelessness or any other cause it shall be retraced at the contractors expense. No debris is allowed in back fill at any time. Back filling should not be done in one stroke for the entire depth without ramming and consolidating. It should be done in layers of 20 cms. Watering if necessary and ramming before filling the next 20 cms. As normally complete consolidation does not take place immediately and certain amount of sinking takes place due to subsequent earth so that even after final consolidation there will not be formation of valleys. It should be borne in mind that whatever earth excavated should go back to the trench except big boulders and stones.

5.2. At locations where the back fill material contains hard colts, rock fragments and other hard materials which may cause injury to the pipe and where rock has been excavated from the trench and it is intended to refill the trench in whole or in part with such excavated rock or materials, the trench should be initially filled in order to prevent injury to the pipe from hard fragments, with not less than 10 cms of de rocked loose earth above the top of the pipe to be screened through a suitable mesh if so required and back filling thereafter be completed and finished with excavated materials.

5.3. The back fill shall be maintained by the contractor against washout settlement below original levels and rotting until final completion of the works and until reinstated to the original surface condition as acceptable to the Engineer-in-charge.

The finished earth material should have been used for back filling ultimately, taking suitable allowance for consolidation. More loose filling of earth up to the original surface is not enough, proper watering, ramming and consolidation to make the filled up earth as hard as possible is required. So that due to subsequent consolidation the filled up soil should not sink further causing void at the top of the trench. The decision of Engineer-in-charge as to the satisfaction of proper reinstatement of earth is final.

5.4 The top layer 10 cms of the road cutting is to be refilled with stone dust / query dust.

6. Classification of Trenches: - The trenches have been categorized based on its size required for laying different sizes and number of cables as under:

S.No	Type of trench	Trench size in cms		Depth above cable/ pipe	Required for
i	A	45	30	100	a. Single cable of any size or b. Laying any number of cables

- The bottom width is mandatory.
- Where more than one cable is being laid in a trench there should be a gap of 5 cms. In between the cables. No cable should be laid one-over the other.

7). After completing maintenance works, the old recovered cable if available is to be handed over to the concerned In-charge Engineer in order to reuse on scarp.

8). The cable which is not at proper depth due to road widening works etc., are to be lowered to meet the specifications.

9). In cables are to be shifted as per the instructions of In-charge Engineer and to be laid as per the specifications.
